

Practice, Effervescence and Rhythm:
Technologies of Categorization and the Legacy of the Durkheim School

11th to 13th of May
Fritz Thyssen Foundation Cologne

Thursday, 11.05

10:00-10:30	Johannes Schick Mario Schmidt Martin Zillinger	Introduction
10:30-11:15	Wendy James	The varieties of human interaction: the endorsement of ethnography by the Durkheimian school as a route to the linking of the mind, society, and the emergence of categories
11:15-11:45	Coffee Break
11:45-12:30	Nicolas Sembel	Hidden Durkheim & Hidden Mauss: an empirical revisiting of the work needed to create a new science
12:30-14:00	Lunch break
14:00-14:45	Mario Schmidt	On the Social Origin of the Categories - A View from the Iglu
14:45-15:30	Gregory Schrempf	Kantian Categories and the Relativist Turn: A Comparison of Three Routes
15:30-16:00	Coffee break
16:00-16:45	Erhard Schüttpelz	Categorizing the Categories: Hegel's Temple, Durkheim's Template
16:45-17:30	Susan Steadman-Jones	Durkheim, the Question of the Categories and the Concept of Human Labour
17:30-18:00	Refreshments
18:00-19:00	Nick Allen	KEYNOTE: Durkheimian Thinking and the Category of Totality
After	Conference Dinner

Friday, 12.05.

10:00-10:45 Anne Warfield Rawls The Relationship between Constitutive Practices, Modernity and Categories in Durkheim: How Epistemology and Justice become intertwined in Modernity

10:45-11:15

Coffee break

11:15-12:00 Nicolas Meylan Mana in Context: From Max Müller to Marcel Mauss

12:00-12:45 Martin Zillinger Mana, Truc, Oomph. Two Foundational Moments.

12:45-14:15

Lunch break

14:15-15:00 Tanja Bogusz Beyond Sociology and Anthropology. Durkheim and Interdisciplinarity

15:00-15:30

Coffee break

15:30-16:15 Heike Delitz The foundation of sociology instead of philosophy: The productive aversion against Henri Bergson within the Durkheim school – and the invention of Bergsonian sociological categories against Durkheim

16:15-17:00 Johannes Schick Bergsonian Epistemology, Maussian Anthropology? The Category of Technology between homo faber and homme total

17:00-17:30

Refreshments

17:30-18:30 Nathan Schlanger KEYNOTE:
The Maussian category of technology between workers and indigenes

After

Conference Dinner

Saturday, 13.05.

10:00-10:45	William Watts Miller	Causality and Creativity: A Fundamental Durkheimian Problematic
-------------	-------------------------	--

10:45-11:15

Coffee break

11:15-12:00	Jean-François Bert	Entre Claude Lévi-Strauss, Pierre Bourdieu et Michel Foucault, polémique sur le « sens » maussien du Fait social total
-------------	--------------------	--

12:00-13:30

Lunch break

13:30-14:15	Jean-Christoph Marcel	From Durkheim to Halbwachs: rebuilding the theory of collective representations
-------------	--------------------------	--

14:15-15:00	Robert LaFleur	La Pensée Cyclique: Classification, Calendrical Rhythm, and Social Theory in the Année Sociologique Tradition
-------------	----------------	---

Farewell