

XIV Congress of the Spanish Federation of Anthropology Associations (FAAEE)

Valencia, Spain 5-8 September 2017

Meeting on the fringe of the Congress:

“The History of Anthropology and Ethnology in Spain and the Hispanic American World”

Conference Hall, Faculty of the Social Sciences, University of Valencia

Wednesday, September the 6th, 11:00 to 12:30

The purpose of this reunion is to bring together in an open academic meeting scholars and researchers working in the field of the history of Spanish anthropology and ethnology. One explicit aim is to explore the feasibility of setting up a history of anthropology network in the framework of the FAAEE. Four scholars have been invited to present and speak about current or past research carried out in the field, followed by commentaries from two discussants and an open debate with all participants in the room.

Meeting convenors:

Andrés Barrera González, Universidad Complutense de Madrid

Carmen Ortiz García, Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas
