Call for Papers

18th IUAES World Congress in Florianópolis (Santa Catarina), Brazil, 16-20 July 2018
Peter Schröder (Recife, Brazil) and Han Vermeulen (Halle) convene a panel on "the History of Anthropological and Ethnological Sciences in Academia and in Public" (Open Panel 173). The Commission on Theoretical Anthropology (COTA), chaired by Petr Skalnik (Pardubice University, Czech Republic), sponsors this panel. There is also a panel on "Missionary Ethnographies" (Open Panel 125). A full list of open panels can be found here: <http://www.inscricoes.iaes2018.org/modalidadetrabalho/public/openpanel>
The Call for Papers is extended to 25 March 2018. Rules for abstract submission: http://www.iaes2018.org/conteudo/view?ID_CONTEUDO=565

15th EASA conference in Stockholm, Sweden, 14-17 August 2018

The network submitted two panels for the 15th EASA conference taking place this summer in Stockholm, which were both accepted; members of HOAN submitted three other panels and we are delighted to report that these panels were also accepted.

The theme of the EASA conference this year is 'Staying, Moving, Settling' and there are 160 panels to choose from!

Accordingly, we now call for papers for all 5 HoA panels, closing on 9 April 2018:

List of HoA panels and their convenors at EASA 15 in Stockholm, Sweden, Aug. 2018:

P030 On the move: Fieldwork, academy and home in the early anthropologists' careers.

Convenors: Dorothy Louise Zinn (Free University of Bozen-Bolzano) and Grażyna Kubica-Heller (Jagiellonian University Kraków) – Short abstract: Focusing on the interconnections between geographical and social mobility, academic policy, forms of family and the gendered division of work, this panel examines the careers of early anthropologists — above all women — who were on the move in order to professionalize.

P048 'Peripheral' Anthropologies of Europe. Their histories and intellectual genealogies [Europeanist network] Convenors: Andrés Barrera-González (Universidad Complutense de Madrid); Lorena Anton (University of Bucharest); and Susana de Matos Viegas (Institute of Social Sciences, University of Lisbon) – Short abstract: This panel invites looking at ways of doing anthropology not within the mainstream, at 'peripheral' traditions in the discipline which are often overlooked. Like Renaissance endeavors such as the Spanish and Portuguese 'missionary anthropologies' or minor ethnologies from the peripheries of Europe.

P049 The role of learned societies and associations in the creation and building of European anthropology [History of Anthropology Network]

Convenors: David Shankland (Royal Anthropological Institute, London) and Aleksandar Boskovic (Institute of Social Sciences, Belgrade) – Short abstract: This panel invites submissions that will consider the role of learned societies and association in the creation of anthropology in Europe. The panel is open to papers which consider the historical importance of learned societies and associations, as well as their contemporary significance.

<https://nomadit.co.uk/easa/easa2018/conferencesuite.php/panels/6502>

P050 Writing the History of Anthropology in a Global Era [History of Anthropology Network]

Convenors: Han F. Vermeulen (Max Planck Institute for Social Anthropology, Halle) and Frederico Delgado Rosa (Universidade Nova de Lisboa-CRIA/FCSH) – Short abstract: This panel invites papers on authors, institutions and traditions relevant to the history of anthropology and ethnology, including museum and visual studies in the Global Era, taking off in the 18th century. The papers should derive from research undertaken within a history of science framework.

P055 Making Knowledge Mobile: Knowledge Production and Transfer

in/to/across/between Anthropology's Actors, Locations, and Performances. Convenors:

Hande Birkalan-Gedik (Goethe Universität, Frankfurt am Main); Patrícia Ferraz de Matos (Universidade de Lisboa, Instituto de Ciências Sociais); Thomas Reinhardt (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München, Institut für Ethnologie); and Blanka Koffer (Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, Institut für Europäische Ethnologie) – Short abstract: Translation and transfer of local knowledge(s) have always been a decisive feature of the anthropological enterprise. The panel analyzes different forms of "knowledge mobility" in anthropological theory and practice, from individual fieldwork to wider disciplinary and public contexts.

Call for Panels

ASA18 'Sociality, matter, and the imagination: re-creating Anthropology' in Oxford (18-21 September 2018) The ASA invites scholars from all areas of anthropology, archaeology, museum studies, geography and other neighbouring disciplines to propose panels to the 2018 conference 'Sociality, matter, and the imagination: re-creating Anthropology' that will be held in Oxford, 18-21 September 2018. The conference also aims to provide a forum to take forward the ASA's proposal for a UK Anthropology Network (UKAN). Please read more about the theme, the UKAN initiative, the Call for Panels rules and instructions, and then propose a panel! The Call for Panels has closed on 26 February.

Call for Panels for the AAA in San Jose, Nov. 14-18, 2018 (deadline April 16).

Joshua Smith of the HoA Interest Group of the AAA issued a call for panels through the group's listserv. He writes: The general calls for papers for the 2018 AAA meetings in San Jose are fast approaching! The deadline for panel proposals is April 16th, 3pm EST. Please share any ideas, plans or aspirations you might have for HOA panels this year with the HOA interest group and let me know if I can be of any assistance. As always we expect to have the HOA lunch meeting on Saturday the 17th of November at a location to be determined. The meetings are from Nov. 14-18th with the general theme of "Change in the Anthropological Imagination: Resistance, Resilience and Adaptation". Complete information can be found on the AAA website: <http://www.americananthro.org/AttendEvents/landing.aspx?ItemNumber=14722&navItemNumber=566> People can submit panels, roundtables and individual papers. Here is a link to the different types of proposals and their deadlines. It is best to start early

(now!). I am looking forward to seeing everyone who can make it to California and serving as your convenor this year! Joshua Smith <actionanth@gmail.com>

WCAA survey

WCAA Global Survey of Anthropological Practice. “The Global Survey of Anthropological Practice is a significant opportunity to learn more about the current state of our international community of practice: who we are, what we know, what we do, and where we do it. This is the first ever survey of its kind, and has the potential to reach more than 20,000 anthropologists around the world. More information about the objectives of the GSAP and how the WCAA will manage your information and privacy is provided in the introduction to the survey.” This survey of the World Council of Anthropological Associations will take only 10 minutes of your time.
