

Dear Members of HOAN,

This is a short intermediary newsletter with an urgent call for history of anthropology panels at EASA's conference in Lisbon (the call closes on 21 October). We also report on 1. the History of Anthropology Newsletter's renaming in History of Anthropology Review; 2. Past event; 3. Upcoming events, including EASA in Lisbon; 4. Recent publications, including the "Histories of Anthropology Annual" vol. 13; 5. Recent contributions to BEROSE International Encyclopaedia of the Histories of Anthropology; and 6. an Invitation to HOAN correspondents to send us items for the December issue of this newsletter.

1. Announcing a Name Change: History of Anthropology Review. The editors of the History of Anthropology Newsletter (established in 1973 and relaunched as a website in 2016) have announced on 7 October 2019 to change its name in History of Anthropology Review:

"We will make this change official later this month, in October 2019; our web address and other contact information will remain the same, and issues of HAR will simply be joined to those of HAN. As always, we warmly welcome contributions: in the forms of reviews, announcements, suggestions for articles, special issues, or archival finds (please write to the editors of each of the website's departments with your suggestions or inquiries), and encourage you to continue to spread the word to potential contributors and subscribers. We also warmly thank all our authors, advisors, and readers—and look forward with great excitement to the future development of the field and of the History of Anthropology Review."

2. Past event

Following the workshop on the history of German-language ethnology at the University of Konstanz on 30 September 2019, the convenors of the Arbeitsgruppe Fachgeschichte (Geschichte der Ethnologie / History of Anthropology), Uwe Wolfradt and Han Vermeulen (both Halle/Saale) were succeeded by Katja Geisenhainer (Vienna and Frankfurt) and Peter Rohrbacher (Vienna). See <https://en.dgska.de/working-groups/>

3. Upcoming events

History of Arctic Anthropology, London, 27 February 2020. A one-day conference taking place at the Royal Anthropological Institute, London, on Thursday 27 February 2020. Confirmed speakers include Professor Tim Ingold (Aberdeen) and Professor Peter Schweitzer (Vienna) who will speak on "Histories From the North" and "Anthropology and the North" respectively. Unfortunately, the call for papers reached us too late to be included in the September Newsletter. The call has closed on 1 October; those interested may informally contact Royal Anthropological Institute <admin@therai.org.uk>. CfP attached herewith. URGENT Call for Panels

EASA 16th Biennial Conference in Lisbon, 20-24 July 2020. “New anthropological horizons in and beyond Europe is the theme of the 16th EASA biennial conference which will be hosted by the University of Lisbon (ISCTE and ICS), in the historic Portuguese capital. Join us for four days of panels, labs, plenary discussions and more from July 21 to 24, 2020.” The call for panels is now open and closes on 21 October 2019. Please read the conference theme and then proceed to the call for panels page. Key dates: Call for Panels: until 21 October 2019. The Call for Labs and the Call for Papers will both open on 2 December, the Call for Films on 1 November.

Members of HOAN are encouraged to submit panel proposals on the history of anthropology here: <https://easaonline.org/conferences/easa2020/cfpan>. The current HOAN convenors plan to organise one or two panels. As in Stockholm (2018), additional HoA panels can be proposed by HOAN members. Please keep us informed about submitted HoA panels.

A roundtable could be set on the "Provenance and Restitution of Cultural Heritage" – a subject dealt with in previous newsletters. Anybody interested in taking part or suggesting specialists on France, Germany, Spain, the UK, the USA or Russia please contact us asap.

4. Recent publications including vol. 13 of the “Histories of Anthropology Annual” series

Béra, Matthieu & Nicolas Sembel (eds.) 2019. Les Formes élémentaires de la vie religieuse, cent ans après. Émile Durkheim et la religion. [The Elementary Forms of the Religious Life One Hundred Years Later: Émile Durkheim and Religion] Paris: Classiques Garnier.

Darnell, Regna & Frederic W. Gleach (eds.) 2019. Disruptive Voices and the Singularity of Histories. Lincoln and London, NE: University of Nebraska Press (Histories of Anthropology Annual, Volume 13). Forthcoming November 2019. This volume explores the interplay of identities and scholarship through the history of anthropology, with a special section examining fieldwork predecessors and indigenous communities in Native North America. Individual contributions explore the complexity of women’s history, indigenous history, national traditions, and oral histories to juxtapose what we understand of the past with its present continuities. These contributions include Sharon Lindenburger’s examination of Franz Boas and his navigation with Jewish identity, Kathy M’Closkey’s documentation of Navajo weavers and their struggles with cultural identities and economic resources and demands, and Mindy Morgan’s use of the text of Ruth Underhill’s O’odham study to capture the voices of three generations of women ethnographers. Because this work bridges anthropology and history, a richer and more varied view of the past emerges through the meticulous narratives of anthropologists and their unique fieldwork, ultimately providing competing points of access to social dynamics. This volume examines events at both macro and micro levels, documenting the impact large-scale historical events have had on particular individuals and challenging the uniqueness of a single interpretation of “the same facts.”
